Kellogg Community College Secondary Education, B.S. (Undeclared Education Major)

This bachelor's degree program prepares students to teach in secondary schools. Teaching majors offered by NMU include: Art & Design, Biology, Business (under revision; not available 2007-08), Chemistry, Earth Science, Economics, English, French, Geography, Health, History, Industrial Technology, Integrated Science, Mathematics, Music, Physical Education, Physics, Political Science, Social Studies, Special Education, and Spanish.

In addition to a teaching major, students must also select one teaching minor. NMU offers the following teaching minors: Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Economics, English, French, Geography, German, Health, History, Journalism, Mathematics, Physical Education, Physics, Political Science, or Spanish

For admissions requirements into the Secondary Education program, students should refer to Teacher Selection and Retention Standards in the NMU Bulletin. Requirements include:

1. A cumulative GPA of 2.70 or higher in undergraduate-level college credits;
2. At least 24 credits in Liberal Studies courses outside of a student's major and minor with a GPA of 2.50 or higher;
3. A satisfactory score on the Pre-Professional Screening Test (PPST). The PPST is waived for students who have ACT sub-scores of 21 in English and reading and a sub-score of 20 in Mathematics or SAT scores of verbal 450 and mathematics 500;
4. A passing score on the Michigan Test for Teacher Certification (MTTC) Basic Skills tests; and
5. Successfully complete the pre-methods education courses (ED 201, ED 231, and ED 301).

Students will be denied admission to NMU's School of Education if they have not met the requirements listed above or if they have: More than five repeats in college courses; a combination of excessive repeats and withdrawals from classes; or more than one repeated course in certain areas (major, minor, professional education sequence, or the planned program and required cognates combined). For more information regarding NMU School of Education's admissions requirements, teaching majors, and teaching minors, go to: <http://www.nmu.edu/education/>

Note: Due to required Education courses, students are encouraged to transfer to NMU after three semesters at KCC.

Other Graduation Requirements:

1. Students can fulfill NMU's world cultures requirement by completing one of the following while at Kellogg Community College: ANTH 200, HIST 260, LITE 205, or LITE 206
2. At least one course in the Liberal Studies Program must be at the 300-level or above. This requirement can be completed before attending the university if the transfer student selects a course that transfers at that level. At Kellogg Community College, the following courses meet this requirement: ART 213, LITE 205, LITE 206, LITE 211, or LITE 212

Note: A maximum of 64 semester credits and an additional 4 semester credits in physical education activity courses may transfer from a two-year community or junior college.

Note: The transfer credit information provided reflects the current evaluation of courses from this college. Changes will occasionally take place at NMU and your college, so the information provided in this guide is subject to change. Students should contact an NMU transfer admissions counselor to keep informed of these changes. Final responsibility for verifying all transfer information lies with the student; a transfer guide is not intended to be a contract with NMU.

Revised 04-10 / Based on NMU's 2009-2010 University Bulletin
