

WTFY!

Are you interested in Work Study?

It's a lot more fun than homework!

Work Study is a federally funded program that pays students to gain valuable work experience in their chosen field of study. Positions are available on campus and with area public and nonprofit agencies.

On campus positions start at $6.00 and community service positions start at $8.00.

Ready to get started?

1

Go to the Financial Aid office

Pick up a FAFSA Form. You can take it home and submit it on-line.

2

Go to Student Employment Services

Pick up a job opportunities bulletin and apply for one of many work study positions.

3

Go to the Interview

The employer (either on-campus or community service agency) will call to schedule an interview date and time.

4

Go to the Human Resource Department

After the employer offers a position and you have completed the appropriate paperwork, complete the student employment orientation.

The Financial Aid Office is located in the Student Center on KCC's Battle Creek campus. 450 North Ave., Battle Creek, MI 49017-3397
