Career Clusters Directory

Career Clusters Directory

Career Clusters are broad categories into which various occupations are organized. Educational institutions can organize the necessary skills needed by a worker in a Career Cluster along a pathway that has the student progress from general skills applicable for all occupations in the cluster (often learned in secondary school) to specific skills required of a specific occupation in the cluster (often learned in post-secondary school). The directory below shows Kellogg Community College's programs listed under the Career Cluster with which the program is usually associated.
