SNAP Benefits Verification

You have indicated on your FAFSA application that SNAP benefits were received by a member of your household. If there is anyone in your household receiving the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2013 or 2014, you must provide verification. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

Please check one of the following options:

☐ Yes, a member of my household DID receive SNAP benefits during 2013 and/or 2014. Provide documentation from your DHS caseworker (A printout from the website or re-certification letter will be accepted.)

☐ NO. There was a mistake on my FAFSA application. A member of my household DID NOT receive SNAP benefits in 2013 or 2014.

The household can include:

Independent Students
- The student. Also the student’s spouse, if the student is married.
- The student’s or spouse’s children if the student or spouse will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2015, through June 30, 2016, even if the children do not live with the student.
- Other people, if they now live with the student and the student’s spouse.

Dependent Students
- The parents or stepparent, even if the student doesn’t live with the parents and is still a dependent.
- The parents’ other children if the parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2015, through June 30, 2016, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2015–2016. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
- For a dependent student, the parent provides more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2016.
Child Support Verification

The student or spouse or parent, who is a member of the student’s household, paid child support in 2014. List below the names of the persons who paid the child support, the names of the persons to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom the child support was paid, and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2014 for each child.

If more space is needed, provide a separate page that includes the student’s name and ID number at the top. If no one in the household paid child support in 2014 please write N/A on the form.

NOTE: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding child support paid is not accurate, we may require additional documentation, such as:

- A copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree that shows the amount of child support to be provided;
- A statement from the individual receiving the child support certifying the amount of child support received; or copies of the child support payment checks or money order receipts.
- A year-end statement from Friend of the Court indicating the amounts paid in the year of 2014.
