Kellogg Community College
and
Davenport University

Articulation Agreement

September 5, 2007
ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

KELLOGG COMMUNITY COLLEGE

AND

DAVENPORT UNIVERSITY

Article I

Kellogg Community College and Davenport University will maintain the integrity of their separate programs and enter into this agreement as equal partners.

Article II

Agreement on Principles

Kellogg Community College and Davenport University agree that any student who has completed an associate degree at Kellogg Community College may transfer credits toward a bachelor degree program at Davenport University. See the Appendix for articulated programs. The graduation requirements for students who follow this articulation agreement are as follows:

1. Earn an associate degree at Kellogg Community College.

2. Earn a total of at least 120 semester hours toward a bachelor degree, including the credits transferred from Kellogg Community College.

3. Select a major at Davenport University that is consistent with the Kellogg Community College degree program.

4. Meet Davenport University residency requirements within the selected bachelor degree program.

Article III

Agreement of Program Articulation

Kellogg Community College and Davenport University agree that a person who has completed an associate degree at Kellogg Community College may transfer to a bachelor degree program and not be required to take duplicative course work. The selection of a degree program at Davenport University will determine the extent of credit transferred.
It is further agreed that Kellogg Community College and Davenport University will continue to cooperate in the development of additional program plans. Such plans will come under this agreement and will be added to this document upon approval of the Articulation Specialist at Kellogg Community College and the Director of Transfer Articulation at Davenport University or their designees.

Article IV
Agreement on Communication

Kellogg Community College and Davenport University agree to cooperate by communicating with each other and with common and respective publics concerning the established relationship between courses and programs at Kellogg Community College and Davenport University. Communication will include the development of various kinds of publications to inform people who might benefit personally from the opportunities provided by a bachelor degree program at Davenport University based on completion of an associate degree at Kellogg Community College.

Kellogg Community College and Davenport University further agree to communicate concerning curriculum changes that affect the agreed-upon relationship between articulated programs and to communicate concerning the development of plans that might lead to further opportunities for program articulation between the two establishments. Responsibility for communication related to this agreement will be given to the Articulation Specialist at Kellogg Community College and the Director of Transfer Articulation at Davenport University or their designees.

Article V
Sharing of Student Data

Davenport University will furnish an annual summary of students and credits transferred from Kellogg Community College to Davenport University.

Article VI
Termination of Agreement

Either party may terminate this agreement, with or without cause, by providing the other party with ninety days (90) prior written notice of termination. Kellogg Community College and Davenport University agree that in the event of termination students will be allowed to complete the articulated program in which they are actively pursuing at the time termination is provided.
ARTICULATION SIGNERS

Dr. G. Edward Haring
President
Kellogg Community College

Randolph K. Fleischig
President
Davenport University

Dr. Dennis Bona
Vice President of Instruction
Kellogg Community College

Thomas H. Brown Ph.D.
Executive Vice President for Academics and Provost
Davenport University

Date of signing: September 5, 2007