

EARN COLLEGE CREDIT WHILE IN HIGH SCHOOL

Dual Enrollment:

- Earn college credit before high school graduation
- Shorten the path between high school graduation and college degree
- Up to 10 college courses paid for by the high school

Early College:

- Earn an associate degree or certificate upon high school graduation
- Earn 60 or more college credits
- Earn a MEMCA certificate
- 5th year in high school (completed at the college)
- Guided program with a structured pathway and goal

“If you start now, you could be way ahead, so when you actually graduate you already have credits that you can take to a university.”

Hailey Peguero, Harper Creek Sophomore
KCC dual-enrolled student
