iACT

innovative Accelerated Credentialed Training

iACT is a job-training initiative of Kellogg Community College (KCC) that prepares students for semi-skilled entry-level employment.

Current offerings include production technology training through the iACT Kellogg Advanced Manufacturing Assembly (KAMA) program and nursing assistant training through the iACT Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) program.

iACT saves employers time and money by delivering the right candidate, with the right training, and with the right job-placement and retention supports.

Visit kellogg.edu/iACT or call 269-565-2828 for more information.

iACT is a workforce initiative of Kellogg Community College, in partnership with Michigan Works! Goodwill Industries of Central Michigan's Heartland, the City of Battle Creek, and funded through a W. K. Kellogg Foundation grant.

FUNDING AND TALENT PIPELINE RESOURCES

MICHIGAN NEW JOBS TRAINING PROGRAM

The Michigan New Jobs Training Program (MNJTP) is a contract-training reimbursement program developed by the Michigan Community College Association (MCCA) and administered through Michigan community colleges. MNJTP is available to employers that are creating new full-time jobs in the state, and it can provide flexible funding to meet a variety of training and employee development needs. Businesses can gain a competitive edge through virtually cost-free training of their new employees.

For more information, please contact Workforce Solutions at 269-565-2828.

GOING PRO TALENT FUND

The Going Pro Talent Fund is a workforce training grant program administered through Michigan Works! Southwest. The program provides competitive grant awards for the development and implementation of employer-responsive training that enhances skills, productivity, and employment retention, while increasing the quality and competitiveness of Michigan's businesses.
